

We'd love to hear from you!

Murray Dodds

is the Chairman of the Executive Team for The Resurrection Project. Murray's passion is for kingdom ministry with a particular focus on the globe. He is starting a Global Gates Consulting business that spiritually engages leaders and organizations at the global gates of the world. Global gates are defined as places where world leaders and influencers make decisions that determine the destiny and culture of nations (UN, G8, WTO, WEF, Hollywood). It is heavy on Murray's heart to organize, monitor, and develop emerging global spiritual authority. He has traveled to thirty--five countries ministering through global gates or related initiatives.

He has a business related background through executive positions with the Alberta, Canada Department of Justice where he served for twenty years. He has served the federal government as a Governor General appointment to the Parole Board of Canada for many years. He is currently launching a new initiative starting a Global Conference business that will take him to the nations, and to the world.

He has served as a member of the International Prayer Council, sat on the Canadian Prophetic Roundtable and also is part of the Canadian Coalition of Apostles. He has been active on the city of Calgary servant leadership team engaging with those who have a heart for city transformation. Murray is a pastor in Calgary, Alberta, Canada who has a heart for renewal and revival. He loves to see God's people fully engaged in serving Him with passion out of the gifts He has given them.
