Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This year we will have two excellent presenters on the area of spiritual warfare, Jane Guenther and Chuck Hornsby. We will also have several new attendees, including David Wood and Dr. Richard Roberts. I will give a brief introduction to them below.

Jane Guenther is the Director of the Catholic Renewal Center for the Archdiocese of St Louis. Bishop Emeritus Robert J. Hermann has said of her frequent work with Catholic priests and seminarians “working closely with them in developing the gifts of healing and deliverance.” She brings years of first-hand experience with all aspects of spiritual warfare. She also serves the International Catholic Charismatic Renewal Service organization (ICCRS) as the representative for North and Central America and English-speaking Caribbean Islands. She is a spiritual director, teacher and has served on the U.S. National Service Committee (NSC) of the Catholic Charismatic Renewal, as a member for 4 years and Chairman for 2 years. She has spoken at numerous retreats, conferences, and healing seminars. Jane also served as Chairman of the Editorial Board of Pentecost Today for the NSC for 4 years.

Chuck Hornsby has served 9 years on the NSC, the oversight group for the Catholic Charismatic Renewal in the U.S. He has also served as committee chair for the working group on healing and deliverance and currently is the liaison to the Bishop for the Catholic renewal in the Diocese of Savannah and serves on the steering committee as Bishop's liaison nationally. Chuck has written and published training leaflets on a wide variety of charismatic topic including prophecy, healing deliverance, discernment, unity, etc. and has been published on a wide variety of topics in Pentecost Today. In addition to his writing he is a national and international conference speaker. He also has a strong prophetic gift and often serves in Catholic charismatic conferences as head of “Word Gifts” and prophetic ministries. On the local level he the Superintendent of the Alleluia Community School and is a Pastoral Coordinator of Alleluia. He also serves as head of the ministry team for the Alleluia Community and has served for decades in the areas of spiritual warfare, deliverance ministry, physical, emotional and spiritual healing. Chuck is married to Peggy and has 3 adult children and 6 grand children.

David Wood is the Executive Producer and Owner of Dread Warrior Productions, a media and funding company. He is also the co-founder of The Global Apostolic Council, a spiritual think tank group. He has been in the Media, Technology and Fundraising business for 30+ years doing numerous productions, casting, and promotions with companies such as MTV, HBO, NBC, CBS, Fox TV, and Universal Studios, to name but a few. He now spends all of his time working on God's business with such global thinking groups as the Global Apostolic Council, Global Day of Prayer, Groundwire, Mission America Coalition, Power to Change, Cities of the World, the International Prayer Council, the Institute for Global Affairs, K.E.Y.S., The Barnabas Group, Wedgewood Circle in addition to actively executive producing and developing media projects. A few of the projects David is currently involved with is the movie, The Resurrection, a film many believe will be God's sequel to Mel Gibson's hit, The Passion of the Christ. David is also the Executive Producer of the International Pan Pacific Film Festival, which is a family faith film festival.

Finally, and in keeping with our desire to assist the wider Charismatic Renewal we will have with us Dr. Richard Roberts from the UK. Richard is the presenting theologian for the ecumenical conversation involving Roman Catholic and "New Charismatic Church" leaders from around the world; these ongoing talks emerged out of a series of conferences held in Rome, The Gathering in the Holy Spirit. For several years that group of leaders has been developing a document that will describe the churches that have grown up out of the charismatic renewal and have large networks of churches but are not associated with main-line or Pentecostal denominations. The final document is in progress and Richard was kind enough to offer to present what may be the concluding draft of the paper to us in hopes that we can possibly fill in some gaps and bring this important document to a conclusion. When it is completed it will be given to the Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity in Rome where it will be shared with Roman Catholic bishops around the world. This effort is intended to help provide a stronger basis for better understanding and unity between Roman Catholics and the vast array of charismatic churches around the world.

OK, If you have not already registered, please do so soon. The Alleluia Community is very exciting about hosting the 2018 CLF meeting this year. Unless you choose otherwise you will be staying in Faith Village with members of Alleluia and experience a taste of residential, ecumenical community life. I am looking forward to seeing you in Augusta, GA.

Blessings,

Bob
